

Assessment Rating Categories

Four levels used to evaluate performance across all roles and levels.

Not Meeting Expectations

1

Performance is falling consistently below the expectations of the role. Recurring gaps are evident and require immediate attention and development.

- Outcomes consistently fall short of agreed goals
- Gaps are recurring and not improving over time
- Requires close oversight and active course-correction

Partially Meeting Expectations

2

Performance has been inconsistent during the review period. May reflect someone who is new to the role and still building toward full expectations.

- Demonstrates capability in some areas but not yet consistently
- Growth trajectory is positive but full expectations not yet met
- Newer team members may fall here as they ramp up

Meeting Expectations

3

Performance and behaviors are consistently strong and in line with expectations for the role and level. This is a strong, healthy rating — not a default.

- Reliably delivers on goals and commitments
- Demonstrates all core competencies at the expected level
- Positive team and cross-functional impact

Exceeding Expectations

4

Performance is consistently exceeding expectations for the role and level. Demonstrates exceptional achievement, drives meaningful impact, and often operates at the next level.

- Consistently delivers above and beyond scope
- Actively elevates the team and those around them
- May be ready for expanded scope or next-level responsibilities
