

Assessment (Rating) Categories

Assessment Category	Definition
1 - Not Meeting Expectations	Performance is falling consistently below the expectations of the role. This includes managers of a team whose performance has consistently fallen below expectations.
2 - Partially Meeting Expectations	Performance has been inconsistent during the review period. This individual may be meeting some goals or demonstrating some behaviors expected of the role, while not meeting others. Or New to role: Individuals in this category have recently transitioned into a new role or have recently become accountable for new responsibilities. They are actively acquiring the necessary skills, knowledge
3 - Meeting Expectations	Performance and behaviors are consistently strong and in line with expectations for the role.
4 - Exceeding Expectations	Performance is consistently exceeding expectations for the role and level — the person exhibits an exceptional level of achievement and an ability to deliver results that significantly impact the business.